Due to restrictions on physical gatherings, the activity was conducted in a virtual format, where NSS volunteers participated from their homes and contributed photographs holding messages related to COVID-19 safety measures. The photos were compiled into a single collage to form a powerful, collective visual message advocating for health and safety.

The messages focused on key precautions and awareness tips such as:

- Maintaining social distancing
- Staying at home and remaining calm
- Taking rest and following hygiene protocols
- Being informed and vigilant about COVID-19
- Wearing masks, washing hands, and avoiding unnecessary travel

The campaign emphasized the slogan: “Keep Distance & Be Aware About COVID-19” with Marathi messages interwoven to reach the local population more effectively.

This virtual initiative demonstrated creativity and responsibility among the students, who used digital platforms to raise awareness and encourage their peers and the community to adopt safe practices during the pandemic.
